WALBERSWICK CHURCH, ST ANDREW'S notes 1985

BURIALS WITHIN THE CHURCH AND RUINS

Among the persons buried in Walberswick Church are :--

John Hopton , Esq. and Margaret , his wife;

John Norwiche, Esq., and Matilda, his wife, A.D. 1418;

Elizabeth Knevet, daughter of Thomas Hopton, A.D. 1471;

Thomas Kerych, A.D. 1512.

No traces of their graves can be found today and it seems probable that they were buried inside the church, and the tombs disappeared when the church was pulled down and rebuilt, either in 1480 and following years , or in 1695. But three interesting memorials can still be seen on the floor of the choir. They are interesting because they are much earlier in date than those usually found in churches. The inscriptions read:

- (1) Of your Charyte praye for the Sowll of Robt. Hwell, which desesed in yeare of our Lord God, Ano1532, in the Rayne of King Harry the 8th, on whose sowll Jesus have Mercy, Amen.
- (2) Of your Charyte pray for the Sowll of Thomas Elderton, Maryner, the which Thomas dyssed the year of our Lord God , 1534, on whose Sowll Jesus have Mersye.
- (3) Of your Charyte pray for the Sowle of Robert Hwell, wyche dissed in the yere of our Lord God, Ano 1535, in the Rayn off Kyng Harry the 8, on whose Sowll Jesus have Mersye.

It is worth noticing the marks of the Puritan horror of prayers for the dead. The words "praye" and "sowell" have in each case been scratched out.

Other notes :--

T.W.Odion, A.D.1552, gave his "lytll Howse for pore Folkys to dwell in yt to pray for me", Sir Arthur Hopton released to the town for ever one acre of ground willed by Walter Burward to build a Wind-mill and a Mill-cote thereon for the help and use of Bartholomew Middleton, clerk, during his life, afterwards for the benefit of the Churchwardens of St Andrew's, they rendering annually at Michaelmas one penny to the said Lord.

T. Alexander Richardson, A.D. 1572, gave his "Howses in Walberswick to be an Alms Hows, the townsmen to to maintain the same in good repair".

Ten men, A.D. 1642 , bought "a Porch-Houst in the South Street . . . for Tooun-Hous . . . for the Us of the town for ever". This was burnt down in A.D. 1749.

Mr Nathaniel Flowerdew, A.D. 1654, Minister, reported, "by order of Oliver Cromwell, the living appropriate to the heirs of Sir Robert Brooke, who by custom allowed but twenty pounds per annum to the minister of the said town; the inhabitants had suffered much by fire and by loss of their common, the death or removal of the ablest townsmen, and could raise but an insufficient contribution for the ordinance of God".
